Dear Lance:

Thanks very much for your letter of March 8 concerning your new reference position at the Louisiana State University Law Library. We have not done it in the past, but I see no reason why we could not include placement opportunities in the President's Newsletter. The newsletter is not issued on a regular basis, but only when a need exists to communicate with the membership.

I am sending a copy of your letter to Professor Ed Schroeder, placement chairman for the Southeastern Chapter and also to Professor Gene Teitelbaum at the University of Louisville who is the new editor of the Southeastern Law Librarian which is the newsletter of the Southeastern Chapter. I would suggest, if you have not already done so, that you list your position in the AALL Newsletter. Hope you can make the New Orleans meeting. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Bill
